Instant@dvce

swift receipt of your import and export documentary credits

HSBC

The world's local bank

At HSBC, we understand the importance of receiving information as promptly as possible. That is why we have developed Instant@dvce, an alternative and efficient means of receiving a copy of your documentary credit (DC), subsequent amendment(s) and advices via e-mail*.

Instant@dvce saves exporters and importers precious time and money by offering the following advantages:

Enhanced accuracy in document preparation

“Cut” the relevant text from the copy of the DC sent to you via e-mail and “paste” it on other trade documents as required.

Greater efficiency and convenience

Simply send the relevant information to your buyer, supplier, freight forwarder, insurance provider or other trade partners immediately.

Improved logistics management

Reduce the time spent waiting for phone calls, faxes and even delivery of hard copy advices of your transactions with HSBC. Upon receipt of the DC, you can start your manufacturing and sourcing process immediately or send it to your supplier and other trade partners, hassle-free.

* Only available for DCs received via SWIFT, Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication. All advices, DCs and subsequent amendments via Instant@dvce are non-negotiable copies.
